

LOGOS is a ministry where adults, youth, and children learn to model Christ to each other in everything we do - where everyone is a child of God, and no one is treated as if they don't matter.

Children ages 4 through 18 are encouraged to participate.

LOGOS is a 4-part program consisting of Bible study, recreation and play, family time and worship skills.

LOGOS meets weekly on Wednesday evenings from 4:00 to 7:30 p.m., September through April.

The ministry involves the LOGOS members in the life of the church and members of the church with the LOGOS program.
