Pastor's Pondering

Picture it, Cleveland, GA 2023. Jesus and Me...

I love the 80's sitcom The Golden Girls, the TV show which began in 1985 and ran for seven seasons. It tells the stories of four older adult women living together in Miami, the stories of their loves, losses, and friendship. One of my favorite characters on the show is Sophia Petrillo. Sophia is the oldest woman in the house. An immigrant from Sicily, Sophia frequently shares her Old-World wisdom with the other women in the house. When she does, she always begins her stories with the words "Picture it," which is usually followed by Sicily or New York and the year that the story takes place: "Picture it, Sicily, 1915..." Now, how many of Sophia's stories are true is up for debate, but the point is that she told the stories.

We all have stories that we tell: the story of how we met our spouse; the stories of our children's births; the stories of the strange and funny things we encounter every day; and the stories of our travels, and the food we ate on those travels, just to name a few examples. We tell these stories to anyone who will listen. We tell them multiple times to multiple people because they matter to us. Yet the most important story of our lives we keep to ourselves. How often do we tell the story of when we first responded to God's love by letting go and following him? How often do we tell the story of those times when Jesus found us in our darkest places and lifted us up? How often do we tell the story of the good things God has done for us and our deep and profound gratitude to him? More than likely, we tell these stories less than we tell the story of that great fish restaurant that we found on our honeymoon.

Why do we not share the most important stories of our lives, the stories of our moments with God, with others? Some of us get intimidated by the idea of sharing our faith. We think that in order to share our faith with someone then we need to be able to answer all the questions that they may possibly have about Jesus, God, faith, and the church. Others of us are afraid that someone might get angry with us for sharing our faith with them, and we're not sure we can bear their anger. At the end of the day, some of us are simply, "evangelistically awkward." We don't know what to say or how to say it, so we just keep these very important stories to ourselves.

Sharing our faith is all about sharing a story, the story of Jesus and us. It's just like the stories that we share about vacation meals and children's antics, but this time the topic is "what God did for me today." You don't have to have a script or memorize lines to share the good news; you don't have to begin your story with "Picture it, Cleveland, Georgia, 2023...Jesus and Me..." Just work it into the conversation. It can be as simple as telling someone what you are thankful for today or as complex as the story of the day you and Jesus became more than acquaintances. It's your story to share. Share it because there are many people who need to hear it more than the story about your wedding, your children, or your trip to Myrtle Beach. You have nothing to lose by sharing your story, but your listener has everything to gain. So, share the story God has given you. It's the most important one you have.

Our first Sunrise Service will be held at the CeNita Vineyards, on 591 Dock Dorsey Road, approximately 3½ miles from the town square off Highway 115 East, going towards Clarkesville. The sunrise is at 7:12 a.m., so join us at 7:00 a.m., or a little before for coffee, donuts, and fellowship. Pastor Burnetta has the service ready to go to celebrate the empty tomb on Easter morning. Chairs will be provided for those unable to stand.

Also there will be NO Sunday School or Coffee & Conversation at 10:00 a.m., but don't forget to come to the church for 11:00 a.m. worship a little earlier with cut flowers of any kind to "flower" the cross on the church lawn just outside the sanctuary. This has been a tradition for many years and is enjoyed by all.

A is for Affrilachia

While this month we celebrate Easter, I want to go back to February and acknowledge Black History Month and a new term I learned, Affrilachia. I discovered it in a press release about an art exhibit of Affrilachian art at the Stephens County Library and a gallery in Toccoa. I consider myself pretty knowledgeable about words but I confess I thought this term was new. To my surprise I discovered that, according to Wikipedia, Frank X. Walker, an African-American poet from Danville, Kentucky, coined the term Affrilachia in the 1990's.

Walker wanted to ensure that the voices and accomplishments of African-American writers, poets, and artists in that region were recognized. He wrote a book for children titled A is for Affrilachia, which features from A to Z a wide range of musicians, artists, and writers, as well as mountain ranges, literary works, and coal mining implements. I think adults would enjoy it, too.

Also, during February Linda Erbele, wrote a wonderful article about White County's black history, entitled "It's Amazing." It appeared in the February 16th edition of The White County News. If you missed it, stop by the paper and pick up a back issue or go to the paper's online archives. It's well worth the effort to see the beautiful local photos by award-winning photo journalist Chris Aluka Berry, and read about the historic Rock Springs camp meeting grounds built in White County in the 1800s by and for formerly enslaved individuals.

The article has real-life experiences related by Annie Sutton who said she's attended the Rock Springs camp meeting all her life. Annie is the first African-American woman to be elected in the City of Cleveland, winning the Ward 2 Council Seat in 2000; she later resigned to run for Mayor. I was honored to meet her and listen as she talked about her memories growing-up in the area.

There's always something new to learn. If you're interested in finding out more about White County's camp meeting grounds or Affrilachia, visit The White County Historical Society on the Square in Cleveland or the White County Library in Cleveland or Helen.

We have completed the plumbing repairs under Fellowship Hall and both restrooms are working. We also replaced all the smoke alarm batteries (20) and the smoke monitor alarm batteries (2). We replaced both emergency panic button batteries and AED batteries. The window glass that was fogged in the Upper Narthex was swapped with the window glass between the fellowship hall and the old library. Some miscellaneous repairs were also completed. A workday is planned for Friday, March 24, to spread pine straw, clean up in church, paint outside handrails, etc. We are trying to locate a yard service that we can afford.

The utility costs for February were:

Water.....	$185.66
Propane.....	$458.72
Electric.....	$1,341.33

We appreciate your efforts to control these costs.

Concerts on the Hill Features Rachel Ficklin

Our own Rachel Ficklin was the featured organist for the March 15th Concert on the Hill at First Presbyterian, Clarkesville. This Lenten series of music and prayer during March included scripture, hymns, and musical selections. A group of 20 FPC friends were there to support Rachel and join the congregation in a standing ovation at the end of the service.

Thank You,
Rachel.
It was great!

Rachel holds a degree in Music Education from the University of Georgia and Georgia State University. She worked for 29 years for the Gwinnett County School System as an elementary music specialist.

Prior to relocating to the Cleveland area with her husband Roy, she served for 15 years as organist at Buford Presbyterian Church, as well as substitute organist for various churches in the Atlanta area.

A cold, rainy day didn't stop the ONEsies from having lunch together at The Cottage House Restaurant on Friday, March 17th. We wore our green, enjoyed selections from the buffet, and had a great time. Glad to have Beth back with us!

As always, the conversation around the table was very lively.

In April the ONEsies are going to a matinee performance of Singin' in the Rain on Sunday, April 23rd. It starts at 2 p.m., so many of us will bring our lunch and eat after church then go directly to the show at the high school. Josalynne and Sebastian Wiley, two of our newest members to our church family, are starring in this play.

Why not join us? Please sign up in the Upper Narthex. Tickets for Students and Seniors are $5.00, and Adults are $10.00.

Howard demonstrated his dexterity at deboning Catfish.

Youth ... Our Future

Congratulation to our own Sebastian and Josalynne Wiley as they entertain you in the WCHS Theatre production of Singin' in the Rain, starting April 20th.

Singin' in the Rain, the "Greatest Movie Musical of All Time" is faithfully and lovingly adapted by Broadway legends, Betty Comden and Adolph Green, from their original award-winning screenplay. Each unforgettable scene, song, and dance is accounted for, including the show-stopping title number, complete with an onstage rainstorm! Hilarious situations, snappy dialogue, and a hit-parade score of Hollywood standards make Singin' in the Rain the perfect entertainment for any fan of the golden age of movie musicals.

Singin' in the Rain has all the makings of a Tinseltown tabloid headline – the starlet, the leading man, and a love affair that could change lives and make or break careers!

Evening and Matinee performances available. Don't miss it! For more details call 706-865-2312 or visit whitecountyhighschooltheatre.ludus.com for tickets. The theatre is located at 2600 Hwy 129 N., Cleveland.

If you are interesting in going, please sign-up in the Upper Narthex. A group will be attending the matinee on Sunday afternoon, at 2:00 p.m., on April 23rd. Tickets for Students and Seniors are $5.00, and Adults are $10.00.

Sebastian plays the role of Don Lockwood, silent movie star, shown here with Nealy Webster as Lina Lamont.

Josalynne plays the role of young Cosmo.

Our New Acolytes

A special "Thank You" to our new Acolytes, Josalynne Wiley, who lit the candles on March 4th and 19th, and to Charlie Geiger, who lit the candles on March 12th and 26th. It is wonderful to see our youth participating in our Worship Service.

WHITE COUNTY FOOD PANTRY

Thanks to all who brought food, ate food, or just donated money to our Souper Bowl Sunday collection. A time of good food and fellowship was had by all and we raised $727.00 to go to our local White County Food Pantry. Money is appreciated at the Food Pantry because the organization is able to purchase needed foods at a discount. We will be sharing some of our food donations brought in with the Food Pantry also.

We will keep some food on our shelves at church for people in an emergency situation or who can't get to the food pantry. We also have a bookshelf in our prayer room where we have items that might be useful for homeless people, single serve packaged items and hygiene items. It has been a blessing to have food available to share when people come by the church who are hungry. Food donations can be placed on the Mission table in the upper narthex. Thanks for your continued support in feeding the hungry in our community.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

Every year our church joins other Christians in contributing to the One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS). Our gifts are used to improve the lives of people in challenging situations.

Donations received are divided between 3 programs: Presbyterian Hunger program, Self-Development of people, and Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. Money will be collected Palm Sunday, April 2nd, and Easter Sunday, April 9th. More information will be in your bulletin closer to the time, along with envelopes for your contribution. If writing a check, make it out to First Presbyterian and put OGHS in the memo line.

Thanks to all who turned out and make this year's Souper Bowl a success.

FRIENDSHIP NURSING HOME

We had our first visit to Friendship Nursing Home this week. Bob took his guitar and banjo and we sang for about an hour. The residents enjoyed listening and singing along with Gospel or familiar favorites. Rachel Romfo, and Becky Clark were there for moral support and to begin to meet some of the residents. It was a fun and worthwhile time of fellowship. We will be planning a once-a-month activity that a small group from church can help with. More information to come soon. If you'd like to be a part of a group, sign up in the Upper Narthex and I will get in touch with you.

Don't forget we have been taking COFFEE PODS to the staff and residents at Friendship Nursing Home which they really enjoy. There is a box on the Mission table in the upper narthex if you have any coffee to contribute.

Maundy Thursday: A Time to Remember

Nancy Webber

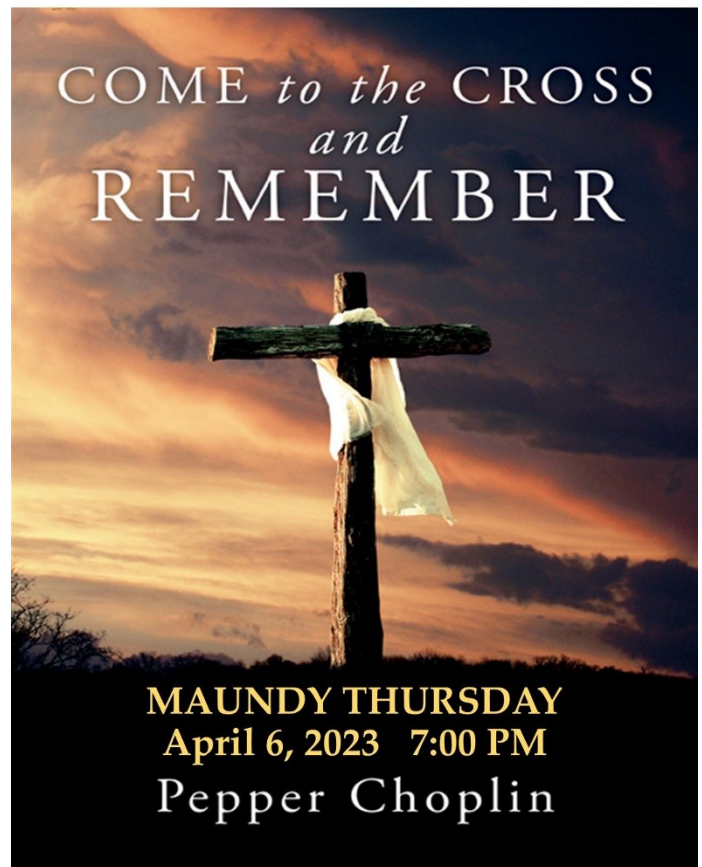

Worship during Holy Week helps us to focus on the joyful, tender, and harrowing events that led to Jesus's death and resurrection. Come to the Cross and Remember, the cantata to be presented by the FPC choir at 7:00 p.m., on Thursday, April 6th, reminds us of these events through song and imagery.

The Maundy Thursday service also will include communion and a Tenebrae observance during which the sanctuary is gradually darkened. The congregation leaves the church in silence.

The cantata will be directed by David Arvold, and the FPC choir will be accompanied by an instrumental ensemble, and James Geiger on the keyboard. During interludes of singing and narration, symbols will be laid before a cross in the front of the sanctuary:

- ✦ Palm branches: the entry into Jerusalem
- ✦ The cup and the bread: the Last Supper
- ✦ Flowers: the Garden of Gethsemane
- ✦ Thirty coins: Judas's betrayal of Jesus
- ✦ A torch: the arrest in the garden
- ✦ A crown of thorns: humiliation and mocking of Jesus
- ✦ Nails: the cruel execution
- ✦ A shroud: the burial in a tomb

Come to the Cross and Remember was composed and written by Pepper Choplin, the creator of more than 20 church cantatas, most of them for Christmas, Advent, and Holy Week. Choplin uses a variety of musical styles, such as folk, Gospel, classical, and jazz, depending on the mood of the narration. His published works include over 300 anthems for church and school choirs.

Please join us on April 6th as we remember Christ's sacrificial love for his people.

PW BIBLE STUDY

We will meet Thursday, April 9th, at 10:00 a.m. in Fellowship Hall, to study Lesson 7, "Sabbath and Self-Care" of the Celebrating Sabbath series. Lindalee Walters will lead the lesson and Elaine Wiegert will be the hostess. Please join us for fellowship and study of God's word.

PW SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY

We now have a PW Bible Study available on the third Sunday of each month at 10:00 a.m., prior to worship. No prior readings and study are necessary. The study is introduced with a video presentation by the author with discussion following. The focus of the study this year is Sabbath. Carol Bechtl, the author, introduces each lesson and also shares a musical treat as she plays her harp. Those women who are employed outside the home are encouraged to attend. We hope to see you on April 16th for Lesson Three: Sabbath and Sunday in the small conference room off the Upper Narthex.

CELEBRATION OF THE GIFTS OF WOMEN – BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

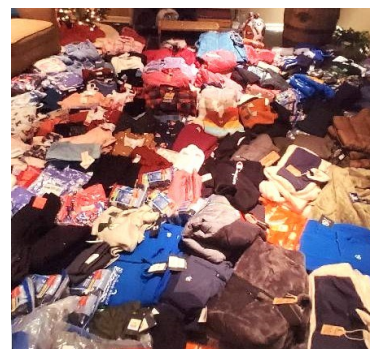

Preparations are underway for the Celebration of the Gifts of Women service on April 30th. This will be a totally women-led service, with a few surprises. Along with this service, the PW will provide a meal following worship.

So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all and especially for those of the family of faith. (Galatians 6:9-10).

This is the National Theme for PW this year, and we are following this theme with our annual Birthday Offering. An opportunity will be available for you to donate to this Offering on April 30th at the meal following worship. One-half of the offering will be used for local missions, and one-half will be sent to church-wide missions to benefit Marking Miracles Group Home, Tallahassee, FL, and Berhane Yesus Elementary School, Dembi Dollo, Ethiopia. Your offering may be made on line as well. Please indicate that it is for PW Birthday Offering.

WARM WINTER WISHES

One of the recipients of a donation from the PW was Warm Winter Wishes, a local organization, that provides warm jackets to local school children. A donation of $300 bought lots of jackets and because of this, we literally surrounded these children with warmth and lots of love.

Elaine Wiegert is moderator of the Northeast Georgia PW.

Several of our PW ladies attended the Annual Gathering at First Presbyterian Church, Athens, GA, on Saturday, March 18th.

This was a morning of worship, music, and fellowship, as well as an opportunity to conduct business of the group.

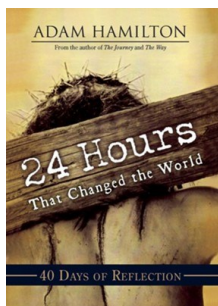

Congratulations to Judy Winski who was elected to serve as Treasurer in Training. She will become the Treasurer for the group beginning March 2024 for a 3-year term.

We were able to display and sell our knit and stitch wares.

Those in attendance were Elaine Wiegert, Becky Clark, Betty Royds, Rachel Romfo, Rebecca Wiegert, and Lindalee Walters.

Rachel Romfo helped at the tables for selling our handmade items.

Lenten Bible Study

The Lenten Bible Study, 24 Hours that Changed the World by Adam Hamilton, continues every Wednesday, at 12:30 p.m., in the small conference room in the Upper Narthex. These studies will continue through Wednesday, April 19th. We will walk with Jesus on his final day. Sit beside him at the Last Supper. Pray with him at Gethsemane. Follow him to the Cross. Desert him. Deny him. Experience the Resurrection.

Playing, and Learning Together!

We were all excited to welcome spring, hopefully to stay. This month we will be celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus. We will have an egg hunt to focus on new life. However, the rest of our Easter celebration will be centered on Jesus Christ rather than bunnies and candy. At TGP we believe it is important to teach these young minds about Jesus and living for eternity in a world filled with false and untrue things.

In April we plan to learn about spring along with spring activities and adventures. After Easter we'll be learning how Jesus ascended to Heaven and how He wants us to live now while we wait for His return.

-Ms. Chloe and Ms. Adele

And, learning to read!

More Repairs Needed

As you can see from the pictures, Corey Anderson, of a local construction company, was recently up on the church roof, trying to find the source of the persistent leak over where the choir sits.

Once the source is discovered, the necessary repairs will be made.

Corey discussed the situation with Roy Ficklin, (front right) from Building and Grounds.

Palm Crosses

During the pandemic, when Palm Sunday and Easter services were via live-streaming only, Kim Ciriello took it upon herself to make palm crosses which were then enclosed with the Easter greeting from Pastor Burnetta.

This year we brought back the palm crosses thanks to the PW Knit'n'Stitch group who made them, so you can look forward to receiving one on Palm Sunday. You can keep these wonderful mementos on your mirror at home, in your car, used as a bookmark in your Bible, or to be given as a gift.

The year before the pandemic, on Palm Sunday, Kim also made several palm crosses, and, after church that day, as she was leaving, she saw a man sitting on the bench outside. Kim sat down next to him and gave him one of the crosses. He was so moved by this gesture, that, with tears in his eyes, he hugged her, and thanked her for that wonderful gift.

We never know what even a small gesture like that can do.

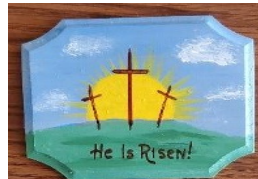

Easter/Spring Items For Sale

The PW have been busy making items with Easter and Spring designs that are for sale. This is just a sampling. If interested, speak to any of the women for more information.

We also are so thrilled to have Susie Allen join Knit'n'Stitch with her specialty of quilting. We have some quilts for sale.

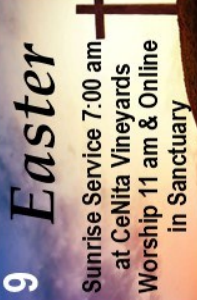

Besides having some throw-size quilts for sale, we have framed art featuring an old hymn, crocheted donut pin cushions, small crocheted Easter eggs in baskets, and painted Spring or Easter 'He Is Risen' plaques. Help support our Missions.
