June Communion to be served in the pews Nancy Webber

On June 4, the FPC congregation will receive communion in the pews, as it did before the Covid-19 restrictions. This has been requested by several members of our church family. It's been a long time, so please review these guidelines:

- ◆ The elements are served separately – first the bread, then the cup.
- ◆ Servers will bring plates of bread to the ends of the pews (both aisle and window sides). People at each end of the pew will take their pieces of bread and (if necessary) pass the plate to those nearer the center of the pew.
- ◆ When the plate reaches roughly the CENTER of the pew, it is passed back to the server.
- ◆ Everyone is asked to hold their piece of bread until all are served. The pastor will lead us in partaking of the bread as a community.
- ◆ The same procedure will be followed for the trays of filled cups. Please help your neighbor when passing the tray by holding it for them as they take a cup.

Viewing Life Through the Cross

This summer we will be focusing on the Gospel of Matthew and what it teaches us about growing in our discipleship. These are the Scriptures and Sermon titles from June to the first Sunday of September.

On June 14, we will have an opportunity to learn more about Pastor Burnetta's pilgrimage to Scotland. Please bring a covered dish and join us for supper at 5:30 p.m. After supper, Pastor Burnetta will share memories and photos of her trip to Scotland.

Wednesday Bible Study

On June 7th we will begin studying Taste and See: Discovering God Among Butchers, Bakers, & Fresh Food Makers by Margaret Feinberg.

Join Margaret Feinberg, one of America's most beloved teachers and writers, as she sets out on a remarkable journey to unearth God's perspective on food. What you discover will forever change the way you read the Bible, and approach every meal.

This groundbreaking book provides a culinary exploration of Scripture. You'll descend 400 feet below ground into the frosty white caverns of a salt mine, fish on the Sea of Galilee, bake fresh matzo at Yale University, ferry to a remote island in Croatia to harvest olives, spend time with a Texas butcher known as "the meat apostle," and wander a California farm with one of the world's premier fig farmers. With each stop, Margaret asks, How do you read these Scriptures, not as theologians, but in light of what you do every day?

Taste and See teaches us that:

- ◆ As we break bread, we find the satisfaction of our deepest hungers in the community our souls crave
- ◆ As we share our lives, we taste and see God's fruitfulness
- ◆ When we're tempted to lose heart, and we all will be, we find courage in listening to and participating in stories of God's rescuing ways

In the midst of a busy life, we can all create space to taste and see God's goodness.

Taste and See is a delicious read that includes dozens of recipes for those who, like Margaret, believe some of life's richest moments are spent savoring a meal with those you love. See you around the table!

To view a trailer for the book, go to Cokesbury.com and search Taste and See.

Harp Concert Returns

Friday Evening
June 9, 7 p.m.

The twelfth annual Harp Concert returns to First Presbyterian Church on Friday, June 9th. It is free and open to the public. The concert in the sanctuary is presented by the Adult Harp Retreat, a group of harpists who have been working on their harp skills at a weeklong retreat at Smithgall Woods.

There are 12 adult harpists and their two professional harp instructors who have spent this wonderful week together honing various harp skills and harp techniques. Our professional harpists are Ellen Foster and Rachel Brandwine.

Ellen Foster serves as Second Harpist with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and performs with Atlanta Opera, Atlanta Boys Choir, and with other orchestras throughout the United States. She maintains an active teaching studio in the Atlanta area. Ellen is a graduate of Eastman School of Music and holds a graduate certificate from Yale University.

Rachel Brandwine serves as Harp Professor on faculty at St John's University and at St. Olaf College in Minnesota. Among her many performance and composition accomplishments are first prize awards and grants in numerous regional and national competitions. Rachel has performed throughout the United States, Ireland, Taiwan, and China in solo, chamber, and orchestral appearances. She is a graduate of Juilliard and earned a doctorate from Stony Brook University.

Professional cellist Esther Morgan-Ellis will once again join the harpists in a guest performance with the ensemble. She is on the faculty of North Georgia College.

Presbyterian Women will host a reception following the concert and all harpists and attendees are invited to enjoy refreshments and mingle.

Penny Murdoch

Viewing our Sunday Worship service via Facebook, while in Florida, I was reminded of how few people you see in the congregation. If you attend in person you know there are a lot more people in church but they sit out of the view of the camera. If you were looking for a home church, you'd want one that was full on Sundays!

I cannot imagine how Pastor Burnetta feels when she looks out at the congregation and sees everyone so far away from her.

It would be WONDERFUL if all those who sit in the back would move forward so the congregation doesn't look so sparsely attended. We do understand that some may not want to appear on the live-stream.

Let's try to fill up the front of the church on both sides. Believe me, you can hear Burnetta, James, Rachel, and the choir so much better when you are closer. Now that the pandemic restrictions have been lifted . . .

Let's get closer!

Youth ... Our Future

Pictured below are most of the group from FPC that came to support Sebastian Wiley and Josalynne Wiley in the WCHS production of Singin' in the Rain. Several other FPC supporters were there but somehow missed getting in the group picture.

A Thank You . . .

After the matinee performance of Singin' in the Rain, on April 23rd, we received the following from Annabelle Wiley, mother of Josalynne and Sebastian:

It meant SO much to us all to have such wonderful support from our church family. Adam and I have never seen such a group come to the theatre for a show and we will forever be grateful. ... Yes, we are all running low on energy now, but hopefully, we can get some good rest until the show's final performances. ... Thank you, and please tell the others, again for your support.

We were there a year ago and this May the FPC ONEsies returned to Mt. Lakes for their lunch meeting at The Diner. We had a great visit, got wonderful service, and enjoyed catching up. Andy Negra told us about his upcoming trip to Normandy, departing from Atlanta on May 31st, with 49 other WWII Veterans. Through the Best Defense Foundation, with sponsors Delta Airlines and Michelin Tires, the trip will commemorate the 79th Anniversary of D-Day. The oldest member of Andy's group will be 104; Andy turns 99 a few days before departure. (A pizza party is planned for June 16th. All are invited.)

AN IMPROMPTU LUNCH DATE

Friday, April 21st, an impromptu get-together for lunch at The Cottage House, grew to a group of eight. As always, the food was great and the fellowship even better. After lunch the group moved outside to the front patio for more conversation and camaraderie.

One thing for sure, when you suggest a group outing, there is always a positive response.

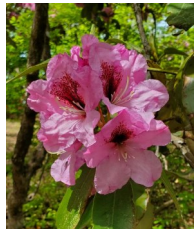

PW Lifetime Membership Awarded

We have many women in our congregation who work tirelessly for missions, for our church, and all for the Glory of God. They are His hands and feet here on Earth. Presbyterian Women (PW) has developed a visible way of recognizing these women, and it takes the form of a pin and a certificate acknowledging that an Honorary Life Membership in Presbyterian Women is bestowed on them.

During the Celebration of Women Service on April 30th, PW honored one such woman. Linda Leslie, and husband, Tom, are charter members of our church, and she is a valuable member of our PW. She crochets many of our items that we sell, often creating them without a pattern, is always willing to help where needed, and her smile can brighten any day.

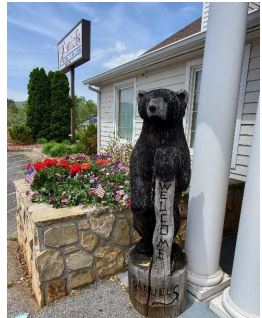

Presbyterian Women

April 25th was a beautiful Spring day for a group of eight Presbyterian Women to drive to Hiawassee for the Annual Rhododendron Festival.

Despite being hard hit during the Christmas freeze, many of the bushes were full of amazing blooms. After a leisurely walk on the trails, the group had a delicious lunch at Daniels, right there in Hiawassee. It was wonderful having two of our newest members, Cheryl Cook and Rachel Ficklin, join us for the day!

Point of View

Jean Kelly

Thank you, Belk's!

Your Charity Sale event helped our PW raise over $700 this year.

The Charlotte-based Belk stores each year offer non-profit organizations the opportunity to fundraise through coupon sales offering shopping discounts to its customers. For the third year, our FPC Presbyterian Women, led by PW Moderator Lindalee Walters sold $5 Charity Day coupons at the Cornelia Belk location. The sales team of Amanda Rice, Bernice Rogers, Linda Leslie, Betty Royds, Becky Clark, Rachel Romfo, Lindalee Walters, and myself, over two weekends, including the sales event May 5-7, raised over $700.

The funds raised will be used to support Presbyterian Women's mission programs including White County Food Pantry, Caring Hands Clinic, Sharing and Caring, Right Recovery Home for Women, and Mission Haven, as well as others.

PW wasn't the only group that was happy with the outcome; a customer who purchased a coupon on Friday, May 5th, came up to us as she was leaving to announce that she had saved over $177 on her purchases using the coupon we'd sold her. She stood there for a while with a big smile and encouraged others to support our endeavor. Even more good news, on top of our $700+ in sales, Belk's gave the PW team a $100 MasterCard gift card in appreciation of our participation. This event was a win-win for all.

According to a press release from the company, Belk's doors opened almost 135 years ago, and since then, the retailer has had a proud history of supporting its communities and the local organizations that work to serve them. Belk's Charity Sale started in 2006, with the event contributing over $105 million and helping more than 6,000 nonprofit organizations over the years.

Let's remember to support a company which has done so much to support others!

Celebration of the Gifts of Women

Dana Abu Ghazaleh was our guest preacher for the Celebration of the Gifts of Women, April 30th. Dana is a native of Jordan, a student at Columbia Theological Seminary, and a recipient of a Columbia Friendship Circle Scholarship.

Dana was thrilled to have her Mom and daughters with her for the Celebration of Women. Pictured are Mom Hoda, Talia, Dana, Teya, and Tara. Hoda is visiting from Jordan and this was the first time she has seen Dana in a pulpit and being in this type of position.

Following the Worship Service, a delicious meal was served, all prepared by the PW. A Chicken & Rice Casserole, tossed salad with all the fixin's, fresh bread, and a yummy cake was the menu. The birthday cake was in celebration of the organization of Presbyterian Women, which has served over 200 years. What an amazing group!

As you can see, it was very well attended.

FRIENDSHIP NURSING HOME

We had a great visit to Friendship April 24th. Rachel Ficklin was our wonderful accompanist. We lustily sang gospel and old favorite songs requested by our group of residents. A lot of the same residents show up for our singing activities so each time we're beginning to recognize them and remember a few names. Rachel Romfo, Amanda Rice, and Becky Clark have joined us and helped spread good cheer.

This is an easy Mission place. It takes about 1 hour of your time. When you leave you will be feeling pretty uplifted. I'll announce our next visit when it's arranged. Don't forget, we can use donations of coffee K-cups to take with us for the staff and residents to enjoy. These can be placed on the Missions table in the upper Narthex.

The Stone of Destiny

Bruce Morgan

If you saw any coverage of the coronation of King Charles III, you may have seen him sitting on a 400 year-old wooden chair. What was hard to make out was a stone under the seat that has been used in the coronation of the kings and queens of England, Scotland, and Ireland from the distant past. As we peer into the mists of early Irish history, we see the arrival of an old holy man, another named Baruch, and at least one young woman named Tea Tephi. Their baggage included a stone and other relics, like a harp (as on the traditional flag of Ireland) from a faraway land. Tea Tephi ended up marrying into the Irish royal line and the holy man and his scribe spent some years bringing order and new ideas about the law and one God to the pagan worship of the native people.

There is biblical evidence that the Holy Man may be none other than the prophet Jeremiah and his scribe Baruch, along with the daughter of Judah's last king, Zedekiah. Zedekiah was last seen as a captive with his sons, being led to their deaths at the hands of the Babylonians during the fall of Jerusalem. The Bible records that Jeremiah, Baruch and the King's daughters escaped to Egypt.

So, what is important about this "tale." Our faithful and sovereign God told David that there would never be a time that one of his descendants would not sit on his throne. God even said that only if we could stop the day following the night could this covenant be broken. So, if this stone is, (1) the stone that Jacob slept on during his dream of the "stairway to Heaven" that he anointed and, (2) was probably used during the anointing of the line of kings (20) from David to Zedekiah and, (3) through the latter's daughter to the kings and queens of the British Isles, then we have an awesome example of our Living God at work in our world and keeping his covenant until Jesus returns to sit on David's throne.

True or not, we can't ignore God's covenant with David or Jeremiah's mission in his first chapter, verse 10, to "uproot and plant" kingdoms. All we can do is trust and wait to see how it all turns out.
