Recharging the Soul

If this article seems familiar, it's because it is. This is the article I wrote for last year's July Newsletter. However, it is an article that bears repeating. Whether working or retired (or both), it seems that we are always on the go. We spend so much time doing for others, working at the church, and making plans that we neglect the care of our souls. Let us all take some time and remember to recharge our souls, so we can continue the work to which God has called us in this time and place.

You pick up your cell phone to make an important call only to find that it is dead. Your child, or grandchild, had grabbed the phone early in the morning and had run the battery down playing games, and watching videos. Now, you have to find a charger and plug in your phone before you can make any calls today.

Cell phone batteries run down. They have to be charged and, depending on your phone, they may need to be charged frequently. Our souls also need frequent recharging. It is possible for our souls to become drained of their energy, like our cell phone batteries after too much use. The demands on lives and our time take a toll on us physically and spiritually. The things happening in our nation and our world impact us on an emotional level that can also drain our spirits.

On our cell phones, we have that little image of a battery with a percentage beside it to tell us that we need to recharge our phones, but our souls are a little more subtle. Here are some signs that you might need a soul recharging:

Restlessness: You feel as if something is missing from your life, but you can't put your finger on what it is.

A sense of detachment from God: You feel that God is somewhere far away from you, and you don't know where He is.

A sense of detachment from worship: You find yourself no longer participating in worship by giving yourself fully and completely over to God and to his glorification, but instead find yourself simply sitting through worship muttering words that you may or may not believe or understand anymore.

Pastor's Pondering

A nagging thirst: You find yourself thirsting for more out of your faith, your life, and your relationships with family, church, yourself, and God.

Since we can't plug ourselves into the outlet and charge, how do we set about recharging our souls? Here are few ideas.

Prayer: Set aside time to pray. Prayer may be hard in times when your soul needs a recharge, but we don't have to begin with big, long, flowery prayers. Sometimes a simple "God draw me closer to you" will suffice until you are able to sit in God's presence and simply speak with Him.

Time with God: Set aside time to sit with God. During this time, we can read scripture, engage in our favorite spiritual practices, or simply sit in silence in the presence of God.

Talking with another: Make sure you are joining with other Christians. In giving us Christian friends, God gave us each other to lean upon for guidance, commiseration and comfort. Sometimes when we need a soul recharge, it helps to have someone we can talk to who has been through this journey as well.

Your cell phone tells you when it needs to be charged. Listen to your soul, too, and take time to recharge it.

Welcome Cheryl and David Cook

On Sunday, May 28, we were very pleased to welcome the Cooks to our FPC church family where they are already taking an active role. Before moving to Sautee Nacoochee, David and Cheryl lived in Aiken, South Carolina, for 30 years.

David worked for the Savannah River Site in the Finance Department. Cheryl had her own art and music studio where she taught string instruments, violin, viola, and cello, and Elementary Art instruction. She performed in various church musicals, services, weddings, and orchestras playing chamber music.

They are both very excited to find a loving church home in which to serve the Lord and their community. Welcome, Cheryl and David!

Buildings & Grounds

Hugh Walters

I don't know how many of you have noticed that there were four trees recently taken down on the church property.

The first one to come down was the Hawthorne tree just outside the Sanctuary. Apparently the cold snap we had in December of last year was too much for it.

The other three trees, all Oaks, were diseased and dying, and rather than waiting for them to fall on a car, they came down. The other one between the two upper levels of the parking lot had the dead limbs trimmed. If you need any firewood, let me know.

The Faith Journey of Howard Miller

I recently had breakfast with Howard to talk about church outreach. Nobody knows more about local churches than Howard Miller! I asked him how many churches he attended. Howard proceeded to tell me the back story from when he was a child in Marietta, GA, right up to today. Howard and his wife, Hannah, joined First Presbyterian when Roe Callaway was the interim pastor. As Howard puts it, Roe invited the Millers to join him and Jim Hiers for lunch at Ma Gooch's restaurant and said, Howard are you going to join or are you going back to the Methodists? Howard and Hannah joined and became very active in the church, including singing in the choir and coordinating Saturday Night Services.

Those of us who know Howard well tend to kid him about which area church he will be attending on any given Sunday. In fact, a friend suggested I title this article The Circuit Rider, a name, according to Google, given to clergy in the earliest years of the United States who were assigned to travel around specific territories to minister to settlers and organize the congregations.

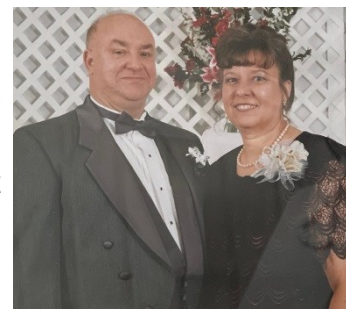

Howard is a man of faith who attends many different churches including Cleveland Methodist, McConnell Memorial Baptist in Hiawassee, Grace Calvary Episcopal where he is an Associate Member, and The Bridge Church with his son Hal, in addition to our own First Pres. I asked Howard why he attends so many churches? Some of the reasons are to worship with family, some of it is related to Boards that he serves on, and some of it relates to how he was brought up.

Howard grew up in Marietta, GA where he walked to the Maple Avenue Methodist Church on Sundays. When his sister, Pat, began dating an Episcopalian, Howard and family joined them in worshipping at the Episcopal Church. When he met and married Hannah they were of different faiths and did not attend church for a while until they bought a home in Woodstock, GA, and began to worship at a church down the street. When they moved to Cleveland, they joined and were active in the Methodist Church, where they met Barbara and Lanier Chambers.

Over time Howard and Hannah decided to leave the Methodist Church and having met Jeff Hutcherson when he preached at the campground meetings, they decided to attend First Presbyterian. Hannah passed away from breast cancer several years ago, but Howard continues to faithfully support and attend First Presbyterian, always sitting in the last row unless someone beats him to it. We may be the 2nd or 3rd church in the monthly rotation, but we are Howard's church.

Wednesday Night Supper

July 12 – Catered
Thai Cuisine

On July 12th, we will have an opportunity to learn more about The Backyard Ministry in Cornelia. Rev. Souvangh Touralack will talk with us about his work with the Laotian community in the area. Dinner will be catered featuring Thai cuisine. We will need an accurate count, so please sign up in the Upper Narthex.

The Harp Concert was Wonderful!

Jean Kelly

The 12th Annual Harp Concert on Friday, June 9, was an overwhelming success. The Sanctuary was full, with well over 125 in attendance, including many new faces, and first-time visitors to our beautiful church.

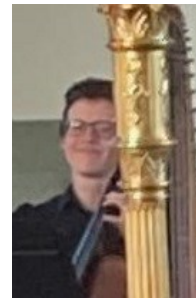

The music, a mixture of classical and contemporary, was delightful. The concert also included Ester Morgan-Ellis, who has accompanied the choir for many of our Choir Cantatas. Judy Smith is the coordinator of the event. She chose our church for these concerts because, as she said, she was a Presbyterian and believed that the Presbyterians would help create a very friendly and welcoming environment for these concerts. We are so happy she did and it brings a cultural outlet for the community.

The reception following the concert was a wonderful addition and will be a new tradition for the concert. The gathering afterward was hosted by the PW, serving punch and cookies to a large and smiling crowd in the Fellowship Hall.

This was a great evening of music and fellowship. Thanks to all who helped make this event even more memorable.

Judy Smith

Cellist: Ester Morgan-Ellis

Dear Jean,

I wanted to thank you for taking such excellent care of us at your church for the harp concert. We truly appreciate all your organization and all your support.

It was so thoughtful of you and the church members to have a reception afterwards. We enjoyed being able to move around the room and thank people for coming. We see many faces that have come to our concerts for years. It was lovely to be able to speak to them and thank them for being a part of our concert.

Thank you again for your thoughtfulness. We hope to see you again next year!

Warmly,

Youth ... Our Future

Our own Sebastian Wiley is a rising junior at WCHS. He most recently had the lead role as Don Lockwood in Singin' in the Rain, his ninth show with the White County Theater Department.

Sebastian played the role of Freddie in Noises Off and Clopin in The Hunchback of Notre Dame.

He was Warner in the recent production of Legally Blonde.

This summer he is at the New York Conservatory for Dramatic Arts Summer Intensive in Manhattan. It's a four-and-a-half-week program with students from all around the world. His concentration is in film and acting. He will get two college credits for this program. Intensive is 100% accurate in that classes are from 9 a.m.-6 p.m., Monday-Friday with Industry Days each Saturday, where they may tour behind-the-scenes of Broadway shows, talk with Broadway and other actors, directors, managers, and anyone in the industry that has knowledge to share with the students.

According to his Mom, Annabelle, in addition to learning as much as he can from people who are totally immersed in theatre life, Sebastian is looking forward to eating the food and going to church at St. Patrick's Cathedral. (We're with you, Sebastian. Can't wait to hear all about it.)

Pastor Burnetta offered a special prayer for Sebastian and wished him well on this great opportunity to expand his acting experience.

Help with Live-Streaming Kim Ciriello

The live-streaming of the Sunday Worship services is quite a daunting task. Most are not aware of the preparation needed before Sunday, and then the actual broadcasting via Facebook.

Nancy Webber has been preparing many of the slides for the broadcast, then Kim Ciriello coordinates the slides and service information, transfers the files from one computer to the special program on the church computer. Then, before the actual service, Kim must align and adjust the cameras and microphones to maximize the visual and audio projection.

Lily Geiger has often assisted with the live-streaming of our Sunday worship service, which has been a big help. And recently, Charlie Geiger has volunteered to help with the sound. Kim Ciriello has been working with him and says he is doing quite well with the sound board. It will take time to become comfortable with the entire process but Kim is very grateful for the willingness of both Lily and Charlie to be her assistants. A big shout out to both of them!

If you would like to volunteer, please see Kim or David Arvold.

Congratulations, Graduate!

Annabelle Wiley wasn't in Church on May 21 when the graduates were recognized and given a gift.

On Sunday, May 28, Annabelle was recognized for receiving her Master's Degree in Education from the University of West Georgia and received a gift from the Church. A week after she graduated, she was offered a job at Level Grove Elementary School as their Media Specialist.

Congratulations Annabelle, and best wishes on your new job.

Take Us Out to the Old Ball Game

Ten of our Presbyterian Men, plus DeWayne's son Allen, enjoyed a beautiful evening of AAA baseball on our annual Spring outing to the Gwinnett Stripers. The chili cheese dogs helped to soothe the home team's loss in a close 2 to 1 game. The Stripers made it exciting with loaded bases in the bottom of the ninth but the third out sent us all to the parking lot. We missed a few of our regulars but look forward to next year.

The next Presbyterian Men's luncheon is scheduled for Tuesday, July 11, at Noon. The Presbyterian Women prepare the meal and you know what good cooks they are. All men are invited so plan to join us for a delicious meal, yummy dessert, and a great time of fellowship.

We continue to have a PW Bible Study on the third Sunday of each month at 10:00 a.m., prior to worship. No prior readings or study are necessary. We hope to see you on July 16 for Chapter Six, "Sabbath and Hospitality," in the small conference room off the Upper Narthex. This Bible Study will continue through October.

ZOOM PRAYER MEETINGS

Zoom Prayer Meetings will be suspended for the summer. They will resume some time this Fall so keep watching for an update.

AN IMPROMPTU LUNCH DATE

Friday, June 2, an impromptu get-together for lunch at The Creekside Deli, grew to a group of eleven. As always, the food was great and the fellowship even better. The weather was perfect for sitting outside near the creek so we all had a great time. Some never left until 2:00 p.m. Visiting with friends is such good therapy!

When you suggest a group outing, there is always a positive response. Thank you, Becky, for suggesting this.

The Last Day of School May 2023

Our wonderful Lead teacher, Miss Chloe told us she is pregnant, due in November and not coming back to work next year. We are very happy for her, but sad for us.

I announced this news to parents the last day of Preschool, and 30 minutes later we received an unsolicited resume from a woman looking for a position in our preschool.

We interviewed Cara Jackson and hired her without even advertising the position. I continue to be amazed at how God is working through our preschool. Here is her introduction . . .

Welcome Cara Jackson

My name is Cara Jackson! This is my fourth year teaching preschool, and this is my first year teaching at The Growing Place Preschool!

I have lived in Gainesville for ten years with my wonderful family. I have been happily married to my husband, Travis, for almost ten years. We have three beautiful blessings: my boy/girl twins, Canaan and Vivian, and my youngest son, Raylan.

My hobbies include: spending time with my family, playing with my children, singing, camping, cooking, scrapbooking, advocating for children with special needs, being involved in my church ministries, and shopping! I am currently pursuing my dreams to obtain my Early Childhood Care and Education Associate of Applied Science (AAS) Degree at Lanier Technical College. I absolutely love and enjoy teaching children, as it is all a rewarding part of the ministry.

Scottish Pilgrimage

June 14 saw a return to the Wednesday night supper and program with a good attendance, and of course, lots of food. After supper, we were given a virtual tour of Scotland through the many pictures of the beautiful and historic land.

Burnetta also had a table full of Scottish items, pictures, and brochures of places they visited but were not allowed to take photos.

In Scottish folklore, a Kelpie is a dangerous shape-shifting water creature that can appear on land as a horse.

Sgt. Andrew "Andy" Negra Jr. Tells His Amazing Story.

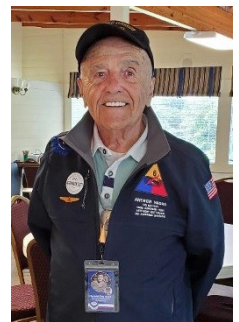

Andy Negra is 99 years old, a veteran of WWII, and an amazing story teller. He joined the FPC ONEsies for lunch on Friday, June 23, to tell us about his recent trip to Normandy with 43 other WW II veterans.

Sponsored by the Best Defense Foundation, Delta Airlines, and Michelin Tires, the observance of the 79th Anniversary of D-Day, was the 2023 Normandy Battlefield Return.

At age 19, Andy was one of the many who landed on Utah Beach during the Normandy Invasion. His time with us was fascinating and most enjoyable and informative. Andy has agreed to come back and share more of his experiences.

The next group get-together of the ONEsies will be for Lunch on Saturday, July 15, at 1:00 p.m. at The Attic Restaurant in Clarkesville. This will be a farewell luncheon for Amanda Rice who is moving to Quincy, Florida, in July. Come wish her well. We will really miss her.

Presbyterian Men

Bruce Morgan

About thirty of our members enjoyed pancakes and fixin's prepared and served by the Presbyterian Men on June 24. The highlight of the morning was music and musings by our own Bob and Melody Thomason. Unfortunately, the EMTs who were to present an orientation to the defibrillator were called on a mission and could not attend. Thanks to all who attended and to the guys who helped with the cooking and serving.

BACK TO SCHOOL BASH JULY 29

Our church, joining with other churches in the community, will provide a day of fun and giving back-to-school supplies to children in need. The event will be in Freedom Park in the morning of July 29. We have been given the job of having a booth for face painting. I will be looking for volunteers to help with this project. More details will be given closer to time.

FOOD PANTRY FOOD NEEDED

Even though we have a local food bank which many people use, it's helpful to have food at the church that we can hand out to people in immediate need. Our shelves are getting low. We need family-sized items (cereal, macaroni and cheese, peanut butter, granola bars etc.) and then, also individual items for people living in their car or a motel to use. Hygiene items, toilet paper, detergent and cleaning supplies which can't be purchased with Food Stamps are always appreciated.

You can leave items in the upper narthex next to the bookshelf with food.
